at 12 o clock M., the TWO FARMS described in said deed—the first containing 293 acres, more or less, the second 357 acres, more or less, making together 650 acres—tying on the Bevil's-Bridge road, and about three miles from Clever Hill pits.

This is one of the most desirable farms in this section of the county, being located in a healthy vicinity, convenient to churches, mills, and schools, and near the pits, where there is a good market for silvine products of the farm; well wooded and watered, and comfortable buildings.

This land has never been examined as to its mineral value, but from its proximity to the Clover Hill coal mines it is presumed to be valuable coal property.
